WHY "ADOPT-A-PRISON"

- Increase Public Awareness of Mass Incarceration Issues
 - Outreach to "the Other"
 - Volunteer Potential
 - Reentry Assistance
 - Rehabilitation Programs
- Sharing of Community Resources
 - Career Opportunities

Note:

"I am delighted with the excellent partnership between the Department of Corrections and the Town. This event will provide an opportunity for the community to learn more about it".
- Chris Burdick, Town Supervisor

"A lot of troubles in the world would disappear if we were talking to each other instead of about each other. It is in this spirit that Taconic Correctional Facility is interested in engaging with the local community".

-Tanya Mitchell-Voyd, Taconic Superintendent

History:

Bedford Hills and Taconic Correctional Facilities began as the NY State Reformatory for Women, opening in 1901. Women at the Reformatory held employment within the community and had close community ties.
