Join community leaders of color, including formerly incarcerated people, family members of people in prison, public health experts, and representatives from community based organizations for a virtual press conference ahead of the legislative hearing on COVID-19’s impact on communities of color. Join us to demand the legislature reconvene session to pass emergency legislation to prevent more harm on communities of color impacted by both prisons and COVID-19, and to continue our calls for #ClemencyNow.

Register on Zoom: bit.ly/covid-pressconference