

Elders in Prison and the Impact of COVID

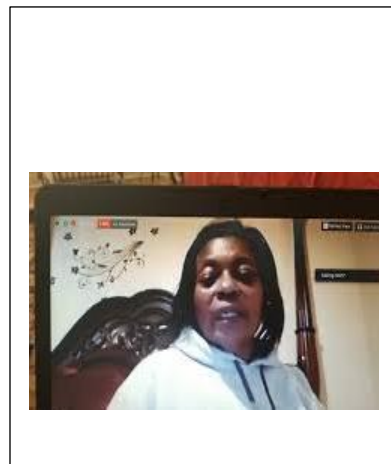

A conversation with Laura Whitehorn and Donna Robinson

Thursday, February 25, 2021 from 3 to 4 p.m. ET

Laura Whitehorn, political prisoner and activist, is a co-founder of RAPP, Release Aging People in Prison.

Donna Robinson is the Western New York Regional Organizer of RAPP.

Want to know what long-term prison sentences are like?

Interested in finding out how COVID impacts people in New York's prisons?

Curious about what advocates are proposing?

Then join us for a virtual conversation, followed by Q&A

Zoom Meeting ID: 951 620 9351 Passcode: 98765

(join a few minutes early if you can)

This meeting is part of the "Prisons and Punishment" class at SUNY Cortland

The event is open to the wider community

For more information contact Ute Ritz-Deutch at ute.ritz-deutch@cortland.edu